

What should I be working on 1st Semester???

Below are the readings that you are required to write notes on. Please make sure that when you take notes you phrase them in your own words that help you make sense of the information. For each of the below sections or chapters you will receive a separate sheet for your identify and define, that should be placed in the last section of your notebook. All readings and notes are expected to be completed the Monday after the assigned week.
